SUMMARY/ABOUT ME

Results-driven Full-Stack Web Developer with 5+ years of self-taught and hands-on experience building scalable, high-performance web applications. Proficient in the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express, React, Node.js), JavaScript, PHP, Python, and modern backend architecture. Proven track record of developing 150+ projects, ranging from custom e-commerce platforms to real-time applications and cloud-hosted APIs. Highly skilled in writing clean, maintainable code, solving complex technical challenges, and delivering seamless user experiences from concept to deployment.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Full-Stack Web Developer (Freelance)

Self-Employed / Remote | 2021 - Present

- Delivered custom web development solutions for various domestic and international clients, consistently meeting deadlines and client expectations.
- Architected and deployed 150+ web applications, including scalable e-commerce platforms, real-time chat applications, and interactive front-end UIs using the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express, React, Node.js).
- Developed and integrated secure RESTful APIs, third-party services, and real-time features using WebSockets and cloud database management (MongoDB Atlas).
- Handled full-stack application lifecycles from requirement gathering and UI/UX implementation to server deployment and production maintenance.
- Optimized web application performance, ensuring cross-browser compatibility, responsive design, and clean, maintainable codebases.
